For Immediate Release, East Greenbush, NY, February 28, 2017

Katie L. Kelly, 32 of Schenectady was detained by State Police in Saratoga County during a traffic stop, after it was learned that a Town Court Bench Warrant had been issued for her arrest. Kelly had been arrested in January for Obstruction of Justice but proceeded to ignore her scheduled court appearance. She was booked at police headquarters by Officer Griffin Hotaling and remanded to County Jail by Town Justice Mary Pat Donnelly.

In other cases:

Philippe K. Atson-Tsevi, 53 of Troy was arrested for Theft of Services by Officer Michael Herrington. Tsevi refused to pay cab fare from Albany.

Raphael Morillo, 17 of Albany was charged with Larceny by Officer Warren Kretzschmar, for concealing $30 worth of cleaning supply merchandise in his book bag and leaving the Walmart without paying.

Vincent J. Ward, 29 of Mechanicville was detained by State Police during a traffic stop on the Northway, when it became known that he was wanted on a Town Court Bench Warrant. Ward had been arrested for stealing three years ago in town and had been allowed to remain free while awaiting court proceedings. When his scheduled court date arrived, Ward was nowhere to be found, and a Warrant was issued for his arrest. Ward was booked at police headquarters by Officer Edward Ashley and remanded to County Jail by Town Justice Mary Pat Donnelly.

All cases will be heard in Town Court. Refer to source above for additional information.
