For Immediate Release, East Greenbush, NY, February 17, 2017

While on foot and investigating a consumer complaint at a local used car lot, a DMV investigator was struck by the mirror of a passing vehicle, driven by Thomas E. Lindeman, 63 of East Schodack. Lindeman is employed by the lot, and was thought to have been fleeing from a violation regarding the proper use of "dealer" plates. He was charged with Harassment following an investigation by Detective Michael Guadagnino.

In other cases;

Carlos E. Osorio-Solis, 22 of East Greenbush, was stopped on Columbia Turnpike for driving a vehicle with a defective and loud exhaust system. He was taken into custody when Officer Edward Ashley learned that Osorio-Solis was wanted by Town of Guilderland Court for failing to show up on charges of DWAI.

Yazmenda J. Burton, 18 of Albany was involved in a loud domestic quarrel near Cricket Wireless on Columbia Turnpike. When Officer Michael Herrington responded to investigate the disturbance, he determined that Burton was wanted for Grand Larceny by Guilderland Police and she was taken into custody.

A 15 year old was arrested by Officer Jay Martyn after a quantity of marijuana was found in his possession at school. The youth was turned over to his parents until he appears for a Probation hearing next week.

Mario L. Gorostiza, 23 of Clifton Park was stopped for a traffic violation by Colonie Police and found to be wanted by Town Court for failing to show up for sentencing on shoplifting charges last January. He was booked at police headquarters by Officer Griffin Hotaling and turned over to Town Court.

Michael D. Levine, 45 of North Greenbush was charged with Harassment by Officer Warren Kretzschmar. Levine is accused of injuring a former domestic partner by pushing her down during an argument at her residence.

All cases will be heard in Town Court. Refer to source above for additional information.
